

CHAPTER V CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

Based on the results of the Job training it could be concluded that Faculty of Humanities has a lot of cooperation potential that can be establish cooperation with any sector and institutions such as education, entrepreneur, within domestic and abroad area.

The MOU & MOA presented mostly used the Indonesian Language. For this reason, an English document was written to add information for abroad cooperation. Although there were some obstacles that can handled and solved with smooth.

B. Suggestion

There are has several suggestions that are expected to be useful or can be evaluation material for institutions such as did more cooperation with domestic and abroad institutions, for the next internship program can be done better with clearly task and responsibilities, and for the last institutions always evaluate and improve the quality of this program.