

ABSTRAK

Good governance atau yang bisa disebut sebagai tata pemerintahan yang baik merupakan istilah yang merujuk pada seberapa efektif kinerja pemerintah yang selama ini dipercaya sebagai penyelenggara urusan publik. Prinsip – prinsip good governance meliputi akuntabilitas, transparansi dan partisipasi. Prinsip – prinsip good governance diharapkan dapat memajukan kesejahteraan desa, di mana semua peraturan dan wewenang pemerintah desa dapat bermanfaat dan ada timbal balik dari masyarakat desa dengan mematuhi peraturan dan wewenang yang telah ditetapkan. Namun dalam penerapan prinsip good governance pada pengelolaan Dana Desa di Desa Linggasari terdapat kendala. Tujuan dari penelitian ini adalah mengetahui bagaimana penerapan prinsip-prinsip good governance yang dijalankan terhadap pengelolaan Dana Desa di Desa Linggasari, faktor penghambat penghambat penerapan prinsip- prinsip good governance terhadap pengelolaan Dana Desa dan dampak pengelolaan Dana Desa kepada masyarakat berdasarkan prinsip good governance. Penelitian ini merupakan penelitian kualitatif deskriptif. Hasil penelitian menunjukkan, dalam mengelola Dana Desa di Desa Linggasari Kecamatan Kembaran harus adanya cerminan berupa prinsip good governance, dimana pemerintah desa dapat melaksanakan kewajiban yang berdasar pada peraturan yang berlaku, akses informasi yang dibutuhkan masyarakat dan juga pihak yang membutuhkan dapat diakses dengan mudah dan terpapar secara jelas, adanya partisipasi masyarakat dan memberikan dampak kepada kesejahteraan masyarakat.

Keywords: Good governance, Dana Desa, Akuntabilitas, Transparansi, Partisipasi, Desa Linggasari.

ABSTRAK

Good governance is a term that refers to how effective the performance of the government which has been trusted as the organizer of public affairs. The principles of good governance include accountability, transparency and participation. The principles of good governance are expected to promote village welfare, where all village government regulations and authorities can be useful and there is reciprocity from village communities with established regulations and authorities. However, in the application of good governance principles in the management of Village Funds in Linggasari Village, there are obstacles. The purpose of this study is to find out how the implementation of good governance principles is carried out in the management of Village Funds in Linggasari Village, the inhibiting factors for the application of good governance principles to the management of Village Funds and the impact of managing Village Funds based on good governance principles. In this study, the authors collected data by collecting data from interviews and conducting documentation by photographing the state of the village being studied; besides collecting reports made by the village government, the interview method was conducted on eleven people with criteria, namely the community and people with positions related to village funds, namely Village Apparatus, Community Leaders, and this research uses interactive model analysis so that it can be seen how the application of Good Governance principles to the use of Village Funds and how the impact on community welfare. This research is a descriptive qualitative research. The results showed, in managing the Village Fund in Linggasari Village, Kembaran District, it must have a reflection in the form of good governance principles, where the village government can carry out obligations based on applicable regulations, access to information needed by the community and also those who need it can be accessed easily. and open in a clear, public participation and impact on the welfare of the community.

Keywords: Good Governance, Village Funds, Accountability, Transparency, Participation, Linggasari Village.