ABSTRACT

Novita, Dinda Dian. 2023. "Dimension of Faith, Fear, and Noble Morals, as well as Global Diversity in Indonesian Textbooks of the Merdeka Curriculum". Thesis. Purwokerto. Faculty of Cultural Sciences, Jenderal Soedirman University.

The Indonesian education curriculum is always adjusted and perfected according to the needs and developments of the times. The newest and currently valid curriculum is the 2022 curriculum with the Ministry of Culture and Technology Decree Number 7 of 2022, which is referred to as the independent curriculum. This curriculum directs students to have a Pancasila student profile. Pancasila student profile values should be contained in textbooks. This study aims to describe the values of the Pancasila profile of elements of faith, piety to God Almighty, and noble character, and elements of global diversity found in class VII Indonesian Middle School/MTS textbooks published by the Ministry of Education and Culture in 2021. This research is a qualitative descriptive study, namely describing the data using words and describing the results in written form. The research data is in the form of words or sentences in the book. Data collection was carried out using the observing method accompanied by advanced observing and note-taking techniques. The data was then analyzed using the Content analysis method (content study). The results showed that the elements of the values of the Pancasila profile dimensions of faith, piety to God Almighty, and noble character were elements of religious morality, elements of personal morality, elements of morality towards humans, elements of morality towards nature, and elements of national character. Elements of the Pancasila values of the dimensions of global diversity in the book are elements of knowing and appreciating existing culture, elements of communication and interaction between cultures, elements of reflection and responsibility for the experience of diversity, and elements of social justice. In conclusion, all elements of Pancasila student values, the dimensions of faith, piety to God Almighty, and noble character, and the dimension of global diversity are already in the Indonesian language textbooks for class VII SMP/MTS published by the Ministry of Education and Culture in 2021.
