

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

According to the job training that has been done, it can be concluded that before doing a crucial activity, there are some pre-activities to be prepared in order to reduce the chance of failure or any other unexpected things to happen, for example scheduling and preparing equipment. Pre-activities also can help to raise a chance of a successful activity.

In carrying out the job training, the writer got many new experiences, knowledge, and relation that the writer will use those things that the writer got to prepare to be a good person on a working life.

B. Suggestion

There are several suggestions that can be considered by the writer to enhance the quality of the products, such as focus on one promotional video to maximize the quality of the product, minimize the efforts and simplify the process. This consideration would have helped the writer to make a better quality of promotional video.

The suggestion for the marketing staff of Lokawisata Baturraden to produce more English or bilingual advertisement. By producing more English advertisement, it is expected to attract more foreign tourists to visit Lokawisata Baturraden and bring the number of foreign tourist back to normal before the covid-19 pandemic.
