

SUMMARY

The purpose of this study was to determine how the effect of level of education, distance, working hours, facilities, and income on the number of visit to city park in the Purwokerto City. This research method is analytical quantitative descriptive. The study was conducted by primary data and time research October-November 2017. Analysis tool of this research was multiple linear regression with the number of visits as the dependent variable, and level of education, distance, working hours, facilities, and income as a independent variables.

Research result shows that four of the independent variables, level of education, distance, facilities, and income were significant. While working hours variable was not significant. The implication of research result that is to increase the number of community visits to the city park in the Purwokerto City, it is necessary to improve the facilities of each city park in the Purwokerto city evenly.

Keywords : Level of Education, Distance, Working Hours, Facilities, Income, and Number of Visit to City Park in Purwokerto City.